

Terms & Conditions

WEB CONQUERORS™ LLC · LAST UPDATED: OCTOBER 2026

1. Introduction & Acceptance

These Terms & Conditions ("Terms") govern your use of the website webconquerorsllc.com and all digital marketing, web and related services ("Services") provided by Web Conquerors™ LLC ("Web Conquerors", "we", "us"). By visiting our website, requesting a quote, or engaging our Services, you ("Client", "you") agree to be bound by these Terms. If you do not agree, please do not use our website or Services.

2. Our Services

Web Conquerors provides digital marketing and web services, which may include:

- Search Engine Optimization (SEO)
- Social Media Optimization (SMO) and content creation, including short-form video and reels
- Google & Meta Ads (paid advertising management)
- Lead generation
- Website design, development, redesign and revamp
- Press release & publications, affiliate and content marketing

The exact scope, deliverables, timelines and fees for each engagement are set out in a written proposal, quote, statement of work or invoice agreed with you ("Engagement"). Where an Engagement document conflicts with these Terms, the Engagement document prevails for that project.

3. Engagement, Quotes & Onboarding

Quotes are valid for 14 days unless stated otherwise. An Engagement begins when you accept the proposal in writing (including by email or online confirmation) and any required initial payment is received. Any work outside the agreed scope will be quoted and approved separately before it starts.

4. Fees & Payment

- Fees, billing cycles and payment methods are stated in your proposal or invoice. Unless agreed otherwise, invoices are payable within 7 days of issue.
- Work on a project may be paused until overdue invoices are settled. Late payments may incur a reasonable late fee as permitted by law.
- Advertising spend (for example Google Ads or Meta Ads budgets) is paid directly to the advertising platform and is separate from our management fees.
- Fees paid for work already started or delivered are non-refundable unless otherwise stated in your Engagement.
- Third-party costs (domains, hosting, premium plugins, stock media, tools) are billed to you at cost unless included in the proposal.

5. Client Responsibilities

- Provide accurate information, timely feedback, approvals, and access to accounts, content and assets needed to deliver the Services.
- Ensure you own or are licensed to use all materials you supply, and that they do not infringe any third party's rights.
- Delays in providing materials or approvals may extend timelines and may affect results.

6. No Guarantee of Results

Digital marketing outcomes depend on many factors outside our control, including search engine and platform algorithms, competition, market conditions, budget, and the quality of your product or offer. We work diligently and apply industry best practices, but we do not guarantee specific rankings, traffic, leads, sales, return on ad spend or revenue. Examples, case studies and portfolio samples on our website illustrate past work and are not a promise of future results.

7. Intellectual Property

- Upon receipt of full payment, ownership of the final deliverables created specifically for you transfers to you, excluding third-party materials, licensed assets, and our pre-existing tools, templates, code and know-how, which remain ours or their owners'.
- You grant us a non-exclusive licence to use your materials solely to perform the Services.
- Unless you notify us otherwise in writing, we may display completed work in our portfolio, case studies and marketing, without disclosing confidential information.
- All content on webconquerorsllc.com, including text, design, logos, the Web Conquerors™ name and portfolio samples, is protected by intellectual property laws and may not be copied or reused without our written permission.

8. Portfolio Samples & Downloadable Files

Portfolio samples, reels and files made available on our website, including downloadable archives, are provided for viewing and evaluation only. They may not be republished, resold, redistributed or presented as your own work without our prior written consent.

9. Confidentiality & Data Protection

Each party will keep the other's non-public business information confidential and use it only for the Engagement. We handle personal information in line with our Privacy Policy and applicable data protection laws. You are responsible for having lawful grounds to share any customer or lead data with us.

10. Third-Party Platforms & Services

Our Services rely on third-party platforms (such as Google, Meta and hosting providers) whose terms, policies, pricing and algorithms can change without notice. We are not responsible for account suspensions, policy changes, outages or other actions of third parties, but we will make reasonable efforts to help you respond.

11. Revisions, Approvals & Delivery

Each Engagement includes a reasonable number of revisions as stated in the proposal. Deliverables are deemed accepted if no change request is received within 7 days of delivery or once they are published or used live.

12. Termination

Either party may terminate an Engagement with 30 days' written notice, or immediately for material breach that is not remedied within 10 days of notice. On termination you will pay for work performed and expenses incurred up to the termination date, and we will hand over completed deliverables upon payment.

13. Limitation of Liability

To the fullest extent permitted by law, Web Conquerors is not liable for indirect, incidental, special or consequential damages, or for loss of profits, revenue, data or business opportunity arising from the Services or website. Our total liability for any claim relating to an Engagement is limited to the fees you paid us for that Engagement in the three (3) months before the claim arose. The Services and website are provided "as is" without warranties of any kind, to the extent permitted by law.

14. Indemnification

You agree to indemnify and hold Web Conquerors harmless from claims, losses and expenses arising from materials you provide, your products or services, or your breach of these Terms.

15. Governing Law & Disputes

These Terms are governed by the laws of the jurisdiction in which Web Conquerors™ LLC is registered, without regard to conflict-of-law principles. The parties will first try to resolve any dispute in good faith through direct discussion before pursuing formal remedies.

16. Changes to These Terms

We may update these Terms from time to time. The version published on our website at the time you engage us applies to your Engagement. Continued use of our website or Services after an update means you accept the revised Terms.
